Dear Mr. Pack:

I had not seen a copy of DISCOVERY before the copy which you were kind enough to send me. It seems to have an extraordinary amount of vitality.

Your poems have a kind of Arcadian quality. Nothing could be more becoming to begin with but it is, after all, a quality that goes more with a love of poetry than with anything else. With everything that you have, you ought to become more than a lover of poetry. You have a lot.

Sincerely yours,
